MUMBAI

THE TAJ MAHAL PALACE, MUMBAI

INTRODUCTION

One of the original grand hotels of the world, The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai, has grown to become an integral part of the city's history, and indeed, its heart. Determined to give Bombay a landmark that would place it amongst the greatest cities of the world, Jamsetji N. Tata built this icon in 1903. At the time, it was probably the only place in the world where a British Viceroy could rub shoulders with an Indian Maharajah. Predating the Gateway of India by almost two decades, it was the Taj that welcomed the world to the city's shores.

As decades passed, and its reputation spread, the guests grew even more varied. It has been home to heads of state and celebrities, kings & queens and Hollywood royalty, Maharajahs and rockstars. In fact, The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai represented the Global Village before the term became a cliché.

DESTINATION MUMBAI

The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai makes a wonderful starting point from which to discover the charms that bring people from around the globe flocking to Mumbai city, India's commercial and entertainment capital. Around the corner from the hotel is Colaba Causeway - a vibrant stretch filled with roadside stores, jewellery shops, pubs and restaurants that whisks guests back in time to old Bombay. Take a tour of and learn about the rich history and architecture of this vibrant city, accompanied by Government of India appointed and trained tourism officials.

Walk past Gothic buildings and through narrow streets. Visit historic locations such as Wellington Fountain, Regal Cinema, Indian Merchant Building, Asiatic Library, CSMVS Museum, Jehangir Art Gallery, Elphinstone College and other prominent buildings in varying styles of architecture, each symbolic of a particular period of Bombay's social and commercial history.

ROOMS AND SUITES

The hotel's tradition of gracious hospitality, high living and impeccable service continues in the refurbished rooms and suites. The hotel offers a choice of 543 unique rooms & suites across the Palace & Tower Wing.

The Taj Mahal Tower

With its arched balconies, The Tower stands in harmonious contrast to The Palace. The 258 rooms and suites offer a refreshing mix of European and Indian accents. Guests have a choice of rooms that overlook the city or face the Gateway of India and the Arabian Sea.

The Apollo Suites

The Tower is home to the newest addition to our extensive suite portfolio - The Apollo Suites. Spacious, one-bedroom, sea-facing suites with a modern edge.

The Taj Mahal Palace

The 285 rooms and suites at the Palace have been completely restored by some of the world's most acclaimed designers. The corridors stand testimony to a century old heritage, with genuine artefacts and antiques gracing the aisles. Guests have a choice of rooms that overlook the city or pool or face the Gateway of India and the Arabian Sea.

Suites

Each suite is adorned with a charming theme, rich textures and hues, and an opulent decor. The lavish Bell Tower Suite evokes the romance of a seafaring sojourn. The Maratha and Lotus suites have their own integral leitmotif, paying homage to the great warrior tribe and the national flower of the land respectively. The Ravi Shankar suite offers a glimpse into the musical maestro's stellar career.

The Presidential Suite

The signature architectural creations would not be complete without a reference to the founder of the Taj. The Tata Suite is designed to celebrate the legend of the Tata's, and makes a remarkable statement with white makrana marble floors, intricate marquetry on timber, Indian hand-knotted carpets, a spectrum of colonial furniture and a sparkle of crystal chandeliers.
